

had packed to go with the request that you carry it home. My reasons were twofold - first I did not know how to pack marmalade securely, second, I wanted Willie to do an errand. My Christmas things are all just ~~just~~ scraps, which I hope may fit in some corner.

Tim - I was dreadfully unhappy the other day, when I had invited just Anna to lunch & then you, & have you taken it as you party. You must do things like that or you will lose your clients -

Hall Mills - 105, 108 - correspondence -
- 1928.12.8 - FH-TPF December 8th

23 NICHOL AVENUE
NEW BRUNSWICK, NEW JERSEY

Dear Tim -

The other day I suddenly heard peals of laughter from Willie & wondered what was up. When he returned I asked him what was up, & he told me of your letter - Your suggestion concerning Q. S. he seems to consider the joke of the eyes charles every time he thinks of it -

I took a great liberty in sending